

BOTTOM LINE

The President Reports:

WILD ON WATERDOWN

I often get asked why – as a pastor in Waterdown – I serve with the Flamborough Chamber of Commerce. Why would a pastor work with business?

I believe that in order for a community to be healthy, it has to be healthy in all areas. I love to see schools, sports and service clubs, government, business – and also the churches – thriving. I believe that in order for all of these sectors to reach their full potential the others must be healthy as well.

With this heart in mind, I would like to draw your attention to an upcoming event to serve and celebrate our community called Wild On Waterdown on Saturday June 8. This is an event to serve and celebrate our community.

It starts with an opportunity to serve the community. We have over 30 projects where you and your family – or you and your business – can volunteer for a few hours and make a difference. These projects include everything from serving at local schools to helping local seniors, park clean-ups, community beautification projects and many more.

JASON SMALL
President, FCC

Last year we had over 600 volunteers taking on over 20 projects with over $17,000 invested in improvements. This year we are hoping to make an even bigger impact.

After the time of serving we all return back to Memorial Park to celebrate our community with a free BBQ, free kids carnival, a road hockey tournament, a skateboard competition and even live bands.

To cap off the whole night the BIA is sponsoring a movie in the park under the stars.

I believe this full day of building up Flamborough has the power to strengthen our community and set in motion an ethos of serving and celebrating.

This year will your business or your family give some of your Saturday to serve and celebrate our incredible 'community of communities' that we know and love as Flamborough?

ERNIE WEEKS TURNS 102

REMEMBERING CHARLIE

Recently about 200 family and friends attended a 'Celebration of Life' ceremony for Charlie Cetinski – a founding member of the Flamborough Chamber of Commerce (FCC). The ceremony was held at 'Charlie's Airstrip' in Flamborough Centre. An avid flyer who was left a paraplegic after the crash of his home-made plane, Charlie passed away suddenly and unexpectedly while vacationing in Florida. ABOVE: Dignitaries joined family and friends – along with other members of the Wheelchair Marathon of Hope – for a group picture after the ceremony. LEFT: Daughter Susan Cetinski – a Past President of the FCC – released some balloons in Charlie's memory. BELOW: As an emotional Susan speaks to the crowd, she is supported by (from left) FCC Executive Director Arend Kersten (who helped co-ordinate the event), husband Terry Noftall and brother Andy.

FCC WELCOMES PREMIER WYNNE TO OBA GALA

The Flamborough Chamber of Commerce (FCC) was honoured that Premier – and Minister of Food and Agriculture – Kathleen Wynne attended the Outstanding Business Achievement (OBA) awards gala earlier this year. The annual OBA gala honours and celebrates the very best in local corporate excellence and community service. During the 'meet and greet' pre-gala reception, Ancaster-Dundas-Flamborough-Westdale MPP – and Minister of Social and Community Services – Ted McMeekin (partially hidden) introduced Premier Wynne to FCC Life-time Achievement Award recipient to Hank Gelderman while Hank's wife Jacoba (centre) looked on.

WILF, TOM & TIM LANGFORD

Lifetime Achievement Award

As Wilf Langford graduated with his Bachelor in Pharmacy degree from the University of Toronto he looked to apply his profession in the growing village of Waterdown. By 1923 - 90 years ago - he had set up shop at the corner of Main and Dundas that was soon was the hub of activity in the growing village.

The local doctor teamed with Wilf to care for the local people and provide modern medicines and preparations manufactured onsite for the first time locally. The local drugstore soon became a meeting place for all the modern conveniences and many a first date was at the Langford Pharmacy soda fountain. Living behind the store allowed people to knock on the door no matter what time of day or night if they needed something from the pharmacy. Wilf would even turn the lights back on at 11p.m. to process the bus travellers and sell tickets for those carrying on their journey.

With the advent of modern prescription drugs such as antibiotics, Wilf saw the business of preparing medicines for the people as well as the large farm animal population of Flamborough grow and truly became the 'hub of the health' of the growing community.

Living and working in the community allowed Wilf to become a pillar of the community and allowed him to champion and help in many local endeavors such as youth athletics, building local schools and supporting local causes.

As the years passed, Wilf was joined by his son Tom who graduated as a pharmacist in 1959. With a second generation to help, Langford Pharmacy continued to grow and with new people and new doctors coming to town, Waterdown had a full service pharmacy located right in the community.

Tom - as his father - worked with the healthcare partners and advanced the pharmaceutical care by providing what in those days was truly first line triage. The corner of Main and Dundas is where you went for all your healthcare needs.

Although these were much more modern times, Tom would end his day taking medicines to peoples homes on the way home from work. And he would gladly take a customers' phone call at home in the evening. As the store expanded to engulf the home behind the store where he grew up, Tom used the retail space to expand the product line past traditional medicinal remedies to carry cosmetics, greeting cards and confectionary goods to meet the needs and demands of the ever-growing town.

Finally - in 1987 - Tom - with his son Tim soon to join him from his studies to becoming a pharmacist - decided to move the ever-expanding business to the new Waterdown Shopping Center. As Tim joined Tom officially in 1989, the new Langford Pharmacy had expanded to over 7000 square feet and provided an enlarged product line and a full-service post office. Poised for the population expansion of the early 1990's, Langford Pharmacy continued to care for its customers by providing a full service pharmacy with home town values of a third generation family business.

Whether you played on the Langford Pharmacy-sponsored hockey, baseball or soccer team or won a prize from your church's annual fundraiser, the Langford family has been there for the community partnering in your health and overall wellness.

Starting in 1993 - looking to add to their great experience in Flamborough - the Langfords expanded into other communities and have owned and operated a total of nine pharmacies over the years. In 2012 the store in Waterdown was sold but currently Tim Langford owns and operates five pharmacies throughout the area and into Northern Ontario.

As a former member of the Board of Directors of the Flamborough Chamber of Commerce, Tim remarked that the selling of Langford Pharmacy in Waterdown was "bittersweet as the almost 90 years of living and working in a community and being privileged in sharing in peoples health was something that provided a great sense of pride and responsibility to his family."

The stories from the pharmacy are endless. Most are happy, and some are sad. For almost 90 years the people of Flamborough were able to walk into Langford Pharmacy and talk to Wilf, Tom, Tim or any of the Langford's staff and start to feel better.

Along the way each Langford quietly served the community outside work - Tom and Wilf as Rotarians and Tim as a National Advisory Board Member for independent pharmacy owners in Canada. Each have received many honours and rewards over the years.

But when asked what he thought would sum up his families legacy, this is what Tim said: "It is not the business or what we sold. It is the feeling we had when we knew our customers trusted us and we could make them feel better. If you cared enough about them sometimes they didn't need any medicine."

The Flamborough Chamber of Commerce honours and celebrates the almost 90 years of service the Langford family gave to the community and is delighted to add the names of Wilf, Tom and Tim Langford to a very special group of local business icons - the recipients of our Lifetime Achievement Award.
